DAY 2 CHENGDU - MOUNT SIGUNIANG

HOTEL (LOCAL 5★)

B / L / D

Visit Mount Siguniang and Shuangqiao Valley (including electric car ride).

Mount Siguniang - Renowned for its majestic and towering presence, with steep cliffs reaching up to the blue sky, covered in ice and snow that glisten in the sunlight. The foothills are densely forested, with lush green grass and clear streams flowing gently, resembling the beautiful scenery of Southern Europe, often referred to as the "Alps of the East."

Shuangqiao Valley - Shuangqiao Valley in Mount Siguniang Scenic Area is a popular spot for mass tourism due to its picturesque scenery, including attractions like Ginseng Fruit Plateau, Longzhu Lake, and Redwood Forest Glacier. (including electric car ride).

DAY 3 MOUNT SIGUNIANG - DANBA

Enjoy the distant view of the Suopo watchtowers and explore the Jiaju Tibetan village (including electric car service).

The Suopo watchtowers - Watchtowers in Qiang ethnic areas date back to the Han Dynasty, with the last ones built during the Qing Emperor Qianlong's reign. These ancient structures have stood the test of time, wars, and earthquakes, proudly overlooking the river valley.

Jiaju Tibetan village - "Jiaju" in Tibetan means a hundred households. The village climbs layer by layer up the valley of the Dajin River, extending all the way to the foot of the Kapama peaks. The entire village follows the undulating mountain terrain, with unique Tibetan-style houses. Each household lives in its own tower house (including electric car service).

DAY 4 DANBA - XINDUQIAO

Visit the Inkstone Park (including electric car service), Tagong Grassland, and admire the distant view of Muya Golden Pagoda.

Inkstone Park - China's unique high-altitude stone forest landscape features a large lake with an island at the center, known as the "Exotic Planet" for its lush greenery. The scenery resembles a sci-fi movie setting. (including electric car service)

Tagong Grassland - "Tagong" in Tibetan means "a place favored by Bodhisattvas." The Tagong Grassland is adorned with lush greenery under the spring sunshine. Standing majestically in the right foreground behind the Tagong Monastery is the magnificent Yala Snow Mountain, complementing the grassland's beauty against the backdrop of blue sky and white clouds.

Muya Golden Pagoda - Also known as the Muya Zunsheng Pagoda, it is located at the center surrounded by eight sacred mountains such as the Yala Divine Mountain, Xia Gu Dongqing Mountain, Wenshu Mountain, and Guanyin Mountain. In Tibetan, it is called "Gu Ru Tang," meaning "Lotus Master's Place" (admire from afar).

DAY 5 XINDUQIAO - RIWA

Visit Changqingchun Keer Temple and Jianziwan Mountain.

Changqingchun Keer Temple - Founded in 1580 by the 3rd Dalai Lama, Sonam Gyatso, the Kang area's oldest and largest Yellow Sect Tibetan Buddhist temple has a staggered layout ascending the mountain with clear layers. The main hall and Buddha hall are centrally located at higher elevations, offering a majestic view.

Jianziwan Mountain - In Tibetan, "Remana Zha" means the mountain pass of young sheep. From the observation deck on the mountain, one can overlook the winding mountain roads below, experiencing the poetic beauty of the countless peaks and valleys, allowing you to appreciate the ancient charm and lingering atmosphere of the Tea Horse Ancient Road.
