The first bend of the Yangtze River is located between Shigu Town in Lijiang City and Bishui Village in the southern part of Shangri-La County. Sitting at an altitude of 1850 meters, it offers stunning views of the Jinsha River. The Tiger Leaping Gorge(without incline escalators) is a canyon near Lijiang, located on the Jinsha River, the main stream between Jade Dragon Snow Mountain and Shangri-La. Legend has it that during low water periods, tigers would jump across the river from one of the rocks in the gorge, hence the name 'Tiger Leaping Gorge.' The rock in the river is then called 'Tiger Leaping Rock'. The ancient city of Dukezong is the best-preserved and largest Tibetan residential complex in China. The Tubo people established fortresses on the top of Turtle Mountain here. The Tibetan name 'Dukezong' carries two meanings: 'castle built on a stone' and 'moonlight city.' Visit Turtle Mountain Park and the world's largest prayer wheel here.
